Will battery energy storage reshape Asia?

Southeast Asia is shifting from the sidelines of battery storage to the centre of a global energy transition. It is on the brink of a battery energy storage (BESS) leap that could reshape its energy systems. The region's market is valued at around USD 3.5 billion in 2024 and is projected to approach USD 5 billion by 2030, expanding at 6 % CAGR.

Does ASEAN need energy storage?

The ASEAN bloc has set the targets of 23% renewable energy in its Total Primary Energy Supply (TPES) and 35% renewable energy in ASEAN installed power capacity by 2025. This means that energy storage is required. Additionally, without BESS acceptance on a larger level, the needed funds won't materialise, and fewer BESS will be built.

What is the ASEAN battery safety network 2025?

The 2025 edition in Phuket, Thailand, will mark the launch of the ASEAN Battery Safety Network and continue to spotlight high-impact topics such as advanced materials, pack design, recycling, and safety standards—driving the region toward a sustainable, secure battery ecosystem Thailand Energy Storage Technology Association (TESTA).

Does Singapore have a battery energy storage system?

Of the 11 ASEAN members, Singapore is taking the lead in the battery energy storage systems (BESS) space. Earlier this year, the city-state launched the region's largest battery energy storage system (BESS).
